

BEAD Addict

Hints & Tips - Opening and closing a jump ring

The correct way to open and close a jump ring is to use a sideways 'scissor' type action using two pairs of flat nosed pliers; this will ensure that the jumpring remains strong and circular!

While closing the ring, push the ends slightly together so that the joint is sprung tight - there should be no gap.